

City of Irving Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Remanufacturing is a process by which a previously sold, leased, used, worn, or non-functional product is returned to a "like-new" or "better-than-new" condition, through a controlled, reproducible and sustainable process; and
- WHEREAS: THE U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) report found that remanufacturers support at least 180,000 full-time jobs in the U.S. and the production of remanufactured goods increased by 15 percent from 2009 to 2011 with $11.2 billion in exports annually; and
- WHEREAS: Remanufacturing has been recognized as good for the environment because of its ability to divert end-of-life products from landfills; and
- WHEREAS: By encouraging businesses, state agencies, nonprofit organizations, schools and individuals to celebrate Reman Day 2018, we can further promote remanufacturing as environmentally friendly and economically smart; and
- WHEREAS: Businesses, educational institutions, and nonprofit organizations have joined together to celebrate Reman Day and are encouraging their communities to learn more about the benefits of remanufactured products.

NOW, THEREFORE, let it be known that I, Rick Stopfer, Mayor of the City of Irving, and the City Council do hereby proclaim April 12, 2018 as:

Reman Day 2018

in Irving, Texas

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed this 5th day of April, 2018.

Richard H. Stopfer, Mayor
